

A LONG TIME AGO, IN A CABARET, FAR FAR AWAY . . .

...there was a set of lonely male performers, who just wanted to be loved, make people smile and put on the nicest, naughtiest, funniest, most stonkingly cool and sauciest hen nights ever! They scoured the universe for the best in male entertainment, from hunky comedy strippers to hilarious drag queens and they found the crème de la crème to become part of their team.

Now

The Adonis Cabaret Show is run by true professionals. We want you to have a fantastic night because what makes us perform better is seeing your happy faces looking back at us whilst you enjoy the show and you can guarantee that we pull out all the stops to make sure you do. This is our promise to you! See you there
